

ROFRANO TO DENY ON STAND HE HAD PART IN MURDER

Counsel for Carnivale, Accused in Giamari's Death, to Call City Officer as Witness.

Michael A. Rofrano, Deputy Street Cleaning Commissioner, whose name has been mentioned during the trial of Rocco Carnivale, alias "Rocks Correll," for instigating the murder of Michael Giamari, one of ex-Sheriff Thomas F. Foley's lieutenants in the Second Assembly District as providing the money for Giamari's assassination, will be called as a witness by Carnivale. This was announced to-day by Lloyd Stryker, attorney for Carnivale.

Rofrano's determination to go on the witness stand and deny the allegations affecting him is due, it is asserted, to the advice of his attorney.

FRECKLE-FACE

Sun and Wind Bring Out Ugly Spots.
How to Remove Easily.

Here's a chance, Miss Freckle-face, to try a remedy for freckles with the guarantee of a reliable dealer that it will not cost you a penny unless it removes the freckles; while if it does give you a clear complexion the expense is trifling.

Simply get an ounce of othine—double strength—from any druggist and a few applications should show you how easy it is to rid yourself of the homely freckles and get a beautiful complexion. Rarely is more than one ounce needed for the worst case.

Be sure to ask the druggist for the double strength othine, as this is the prescription sold under guarantee of money back if it fails to remove freckles.—Advt.

York from her flat.

"I paid the telephone bills," she said, "and the bills were too high." She admitted that while Carnivale telephoned to New York from the Brooklyn flat she never went into the room where the telephone was.

"I asked him once who he was calling up," the woman testified, "and he told me to mind my own business."

Reverting to the revolver Mr. Brothers asked the witness when she last saw it in her flat.

"Rocks kept it under his pillow," she replied, "where I saw it every time I made the bed. It disappeared some time in March, about two weeks before I moved."

"When did you move?" "March 22," Giamari was killed March 8 just two weeks before.

Pauline told Mr. Stryker that she had once seen La Salle using the phone at her home and heard him exclaim after he hung up the receiver, "If that Rofrano don't help me I am going to take him and everybody else along with me."

Did you ever make that statement before? Mr. Brothers asked.

"No, I was never asked about it," was the reply.

THREE PRISONERS ESCAPE FROM POLICE COURT

Jump From Window 35 Feet to Soft Earth and Get Away
From Pursuers.

Three prisoners awaiting arraignment in the Coney Island Police Court to-day jumped out of a window and escaped. They dropped thirty-five feet to a pile of soft earth and headed for the Cuiver Line depot of the B. R. E. One of them limped and is believed to have been injured by the drop.

The three were Israel Gorenstein, nineteen, of No. 213 Second Street, Manhattan, arrested last night for trying to steal a purse from Mrs. Claude Rankin, of No. 170 East One Hundred and Seventy-first Street, the Bronx;

Sam Schulman, twenty-two, of No. 2043 Emmont Avenue, Rhinecliff, Bay, charged with robbing a dry goods store, and James McLoughlin, of No. 327 Ralph Avenue, Brooklyn, arrested last night for begging.

The escape was effected when one of the three opened a door leading to a room just off a long corridor, which usually is occupied by a police lieutenant, with the door locked. Court officials say one of the men had a key.

As the three prisoners slipped out twenty others rushed after them, but were held up by a court attendant.
